

Little Woody Eugene Barrel Aged Brew Festival 2016 Marketplace Information and Application October 21st & 22nd 2016

In the past, brewers served beer that had been aged in oaken casks. Once again, brewers are turning to these historical techniques for adding depth of flavor to their beers, ciders and spirits. The Little Woody celebrates these ancient brewing technique as adapted by American craft brewers, featuring beers, ciders and spirits aged in wine barrels, whiskey barrels and oak barrels, which uniquely flavors and intensifies the beer.

We are delighted to bringing this Eugene tradition to Eugene. Little Woody fills a day and a half tasting rare and unusual beers, ciders and whiskey, great food, brewing related presentations and mingling with aficionados and casual beer lovers. The site for this event is the new Eugene Venue 252, an artful blending of traditional and modern, reflecting the elements of the craft of barrel aged brews which The Little Woody celebrates.
